Health Legal Protection

Support in legal matters

Health – your right to protection

If you were to be affected by medical malpractice, would retaining your own lawyer be worth the trouble? By taking out Health Legal Protection insurance, you don't need to worry about high costs or your chances of success.

Health Legal Protection insurance offers comprehensive support in connection with legal problems, questions and disputes relating to health impairments.

Here's where we can support you

- Legal cases involving the parties that caused an accident
- Disagreements with medical service providers
- Assistance in connection with claims asserted by an opposing liability insurer
- Legal cases involving other insurance companies

To take out Health Legal Protection insurance, you'll need to have Completa Top, Completa Forte and/or Hospita supplementary insurance.

Your cover

Health Legal Protection cover includes the following in connection with legal cases arising from impaired health:

- Protection of your legal interests up to a maximum of 300 000 francs per case in Europe (150 000 francs per case outside Europe)
- Cover of the cost of mandated lawyers
- Cover of the cost of opinions obtained by mandate
- Cover of the procedural costs and court fees you have to pay
- Cover of the amount in compensation owed to the counterparty
